SEC Reinstates LPP Club Recommends Removal Of Union Committee Ban

Club's Condoning Tribune Sale Scored by Council

The S.E.C. has severely reprimanded the L.P.P. Club for their actions in condemning the sale of the Canadian Tribune in the McGill Union, in contravention of Union House Regulations.

In a seven and one half hour special meeting of the Students Executive Council last Thursday, motions were passed reprimanding the club, reinstating its constitution, upholding the actions of the Union Committee and recommending to that committee that it reconsider its decision to ban the club from Union premises for five months. This reconsideration in the light of the higher censure of the club by the SEC.

The three individuals who sold the Canadian Tribune on the steps of the Union have been suspended from the Students Society until June 30, 1949.

Don Vince, Joan Radley and Jack Crepeau of the Union House Committee testified at the special meeting, as did Lou Gottheil, Lionel Albert, Dan Nerenberg and Allan Zinman of the L.P.P. Club executive.

The Union House Committee is meeting tomorrow to reconsider its ban of the L.P.P. Club.

The three motions passed by the SEC are:

1. Whereas there is a rule prohibiting the distribution and sale of literature in the McGill Union without proper authorization;

And whereas Messrs. Lionel Albert, Daniel Nerenberg, and Allan Zinman, being Members of an Executive of a McGill Campus Club, acted in bad faith in breaking this rule on Monday, January 31, 1949, in selling the Canadian Tribune in the McGill Union;

Therefore be it resolved that Messrs. Albert, Nerenberg and Zinman be suspended from the Students' Society of McGill University until June 30, 1949.

2. Whereas the McGill Labour Progressive Party Club did condone the sale of the Canadian Tribune by its Members in the McGill Union; and Whereas the Club has operated as such while subject to suspension by the Students' Executive Council pending investigation of the allegations against them in that they sent out a formal letter to a large number of students; Therefore it is moved that:

The Club be severely censured for this; but that its Constitution be reinstated.

3. The Students' Executive Council upholds the actions of the Union House Committee; but that in this case, owing to the higher censure of the Club by the Students' Executive Council, it is recommended to the Union House Committee that they reconsider their decision in banning the use of Union facilities to the L.P.P. Club.

Annual Dinner On March 9th At Currie Gym

The second annual Awards Banquet of the McGill Student Society, which marks the official finale to campus extra-curricular activity, will be held at 7.30 p.m. this Wednesday evening, March 9th, at the Sir Arthur Currie Memorial Gymnasium. Tickets for this event are priced at one dollar per person and are available at the Central Ticket Office in the McGill Union.

The Awards Banquet marks the high-point as well as the culmination of a year of hectic extra-curricular student activity. On this occasion highly coveted awards presented by the Students' Executive Council, the McGill Debating Society, and the Women's Union are handed out to deserving undergraduates who through their tireless efforts have contributed to a fuller student life and have enriched the name of the University.

This year's Banquet Committee consists of Joan Radley, President of the Women's Union, Mike Ellwood, Architectural Representative to the S.E.C. and Bob Gill, President of the Student Society. Through their efforts a most interesting evening has been assured. The impressive list of invited guests includes members of the Senate and the Board of Governors, as well as representatives from all the Faculties and Departments of the University and the McGill Graduate Society. Arrangements are now being completed to have a well-known guest speaker address the gathering.

An important highlight of the banquet will be the presentation of special awards to Miss M. Heasley, Mrs. J. Altham, Mr. George Foster and Joshua Booth in recognition of their long and devoted service to the students. In addition, the results of the campus elections will be announced.

Book Campaign Requires More Useful Gifts

"Forever Amber" and "Kitty," two best-selling lurid historical novels, lead the quantities of current literature received by the March of Books screening centre, Miss Margaret McGarry, Convenor, Screening Committee and Chairman, Montreal Special Libraries Association announced today.

Miss McGarry stated that these books are not appropriate for sending to European Universities as the type of literature required should lend itself for use by university students. However, Canadian hospital and institutional libraries have profited from the campaign as such literature, unsuitable for Europe, is sent to these organizations.

Elementary school books have also been received in large quantities and these while unsuitable for universities in Europe are routed through the Salvation Army to underprivileged children and other groups where they are appropriate.

As a result, Miss McGarry announced every book received is being put to a good use although 20 per cent of receipts cannot be sent to European libraries.

The Screening Staff of the March of Books campaign recently rescued two detective thrillers, mistakenly included by a contributor who had rented them from the YWCA library. After much excitement and searching they were finally returned intact to the grateful owner.

A variety of literature has been received. Current best sellers are prolific, but there are also ancient volumes, the earliest of which was printed in 1771. One donor has sent in more than a hundred "True Western Tales", and another has contributed a complete encyclopedia in its original. While French and English books have been in a majority, other languages represented have been German, Spanish and Italian.

English Dept to Present Play By Goldsmith

Knowing that an organization like theirs is somewhat responsible for the creation of a truly Canadian Theatre, and probably having been influenced also by successes in the past, the members of the McGill English Department have deemed it fitting to present another play in the near future. They have selected none other than Oliver Goldsmith's comedy, "She Stoops to Conquer."

As Mr. Elmer Hall was unable to assume responsibility of the task, Mr. Frank Ford, who is technical director of the English Department and whose experience extends as far as having been director on Broadway stages some years ago, has consented to direct and stage the production. As we were speaking to him he expressed confidence in the ability of his young actors to execute the play quite well and to its last nuance. However, it will be for the audience to judge, when the hour draws near.

For the first time since productions are staged at McGill, a director has resorted to the procedure termed "Digging out the parts" in theatrical idiom, and known only in professional theatre. Each actor is given his own part with cues written, instead of a printed edition of the play.

The production is to be played in Moyse Hall on Thursday, Friday and Saturday, March 17, 18, 19, at 8.30 p.m. with a Matinee on Saturday at 2.30 p.m. Saturday night's presentation has been reserved for the public (tickets priced at $1.00); all others, including the Matinee, are for the benefit of students (tickets priced at 50 cents).

Above we see a generous contributor adding "his two cents worth" to a mile of pennies drive held at McGill some years back. This year's charities campaign is not resorting to the mile of pennies, and contributions somewhat greater than that depicted above are required.

Commemoration Goethe Festival Begins Next Week

In commemoration of the two-hundredth anniversary of the birth of Goethe, the great German writer, the German department of McGill is sponsoring the Goethe Festival to be held here next week.

The first event of this festival will be a lecture by Professor B. Fairley, of the Department of German in the University of Toronto. "Goethe, the Man and the Myth" is the title of this lecture, which will be given in English. Professor Fairley has made a careful study of Goethe, and has written two books on him. The lecture will be held in Moyse Hall at twelve noon on Friday, March 18. Admission is free to all those interested.

A Goethe musical and dramatic programme will be presented in Moyse Hall at 8.15 p.m. on Wednesday, March 23. It will consist of Goethe's poems in musical compositions by Beethoven, Mozart, Schubert, Schumann, Reichardt, and Zelter, and interpretations of dramatic scenes from Goethe.

Several of these pieces will be sung by Shirley Sproule, solo soprano, of the McGill Conservatorium of Music, under the direction of Jean Muller. A special group from the McGill Choral Society will follow with various short selections.

Mario Duschene, from the Conservatorium of Music in Geneva, Switzerland, will then interpret several pieces on the flute.

In the second part of the programme will be presented a love scene from Egmont, and the Prologue in Heaven, to Faust.

Lastly, there will be lyrical, dramatic interpretations of Goethe's Monologue, "Prometheus," and of his poem, "Amor as Landscape Painter." Professor Graff of the McGill German Department is in charge of this section of the programme, and Dr. Arthur Lismer of the Fine Arts Department, will provide for the pictorial element in the latter interpretation.

A short commentary in English by students in the German Department will precede every feature of the programme.

Tickets for the second event of the Festival (reserved 75c, students, 50c) may be obtained from the Department of German (Ma. 9181, local 395) or from the Central Ticket Office, next week.

Patrons for the Goethe Festival are: Chancellor Tyndale, Dr. M. Roscoe, William Birks, Senior Governor, Dean Fieldhouse, Dean Thomson, Dean Douglas Clarke, and Dr. H. Files, Chairman of the Humanities group.

Air Squadron Seeks Recruits At McGill U.

Squadron Leader C. D. Solin, Officer Commanding the newly-formed R.C.A.F. University Auxiliary Flight wishes to announce that interviews for membership into this organization are now being carried out as a result of meetings held at McGill and Dawson last week. For those who are unable to attend these meetings it is announced that Headquarters for the Flight has been established in Room No. 8 in the Sir Arthur Currie Memorial Gymnasium. An interview appointment can be made by applying to the office in person or by telephoning BE. 1932.

Dawson students, desiring further information regarding the Flight, are at liberty to call the above number collect and arrangements will be made for interviews. It is hoped that a large number of the Flight personnel will be composed of Dawson College students.

Squadron Leader Solin emphasizes that all those who wish to apply should do so without further delay. This is necessitated by the fact that plans for the summer training of Flight members this summer must be initiated in the very near future so that all pertinent training details will be worked out by May.

Closing Party Of Workshop Tuesday Eve

The McGill Radio Workshop closing party will be held tomorrow evening at 8 p.m. in the Union Grill Room. A slam-bang program has been planned by the committee with the aim in mind of giving the members and invitees of the workshop a party to remember as the organization closes up shop for the year, and puts up its summer cobwebs. The many featured programs for the evening included: Dancing, refreshments, a playback of "The Ghost of Benjamin Street", a skit by Ashley and Co. Awards and pins, a summary of next year's projected activities, and the announcement of next year's executive.

The following are cordially and otherwise invited to the shindig: Neise Rosen, Hannah Borden, Leila Weinrauch, Al Doyle, Ross Draper, Paul Edwards, Buril Fine, Marilyn Goldman, Jacqueline Hodges, Frank Hughes, Margo Cronyn, Gerald Yurechuk, Marilyn Ann Webb, Albert van Stolk, Shirley Tuttle, Liz Ann Sumner, Christina Thompson, Aline Singerman, Jacob Rosensweig, Elizabeth Parkin, Joan Notkin, Eric Miller, Milton Winston, Conrad Shatner, Eugene Jousse, Fred Barnes, Bill Shatner, Estelle Mendelsohn, Stan Mann, Phillips Lewis, Bernard Lax, Natalie Kolber, Bob Robinson, Earl Ingram, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Green, Mr. and Mrs. Irving Simms, Dennis Fraser, Mary Ford, Irwin Brodie, John Bradbury, Mickey Beraha, Denyse Beraha, Joy Ballon, Paul Almond, Lawrence Diner, Nicholas Vlahos, Len Ashley, Georgia Gill, Joy Smith, Lawrence Garmaise, Hillel Becker, John Cameron, Hugh Taschereau, Norman Endekman, Martha McCutcheon, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Sinclair, Len Beaton, Jack Shayne, Sid Rose, Boris Berbrier, John Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Melay.

Final Debate Today; McGill Faces Vermont

The last debate on home grounds of the current academic year will take place at 1 p.m. today in the Union Ballroom when McGill will defend the resolution that "World Socialism is the cure for the World's ills" against the University of Vermont. Conrad Shatner and John Walsh will represent McGill. Plans are underway to rebroadcast the debate at 9 p.m. tonight over station CJAD.

Special Student Rates For Thibaud Concert

There will be a number of tickets at reduced rates available to McGill students for the concert which is being given by Jacques Thibaud, French violinist, at Plateau Hall, Wednesday, March 9. These tickets, which will be sold at the Tuck Shop, will be sold to

Dean Fieldhouse Addresses Newman Club on Morality

Sunday morning, at Sacred Heart Convent, the members of the Newman Club heard a talk delivered by H. N. Fieldhouse, Dean of the Faculty of Arts and Science, on the subject of "Morality and Politics."

The Dean began by describing the two theories now held concerning the relations between private morality, i.e., that of the individual, and public morality, that is that used in international dealings. The eastern powers follow the trail blazed by Machiavelli and Bismarck in believing that private and public ethics are completely separated. To them the tenets of individual morality do not apply to politics, where might is right.

Western Idea

The western idea is much more complex. Its roots lie in the development of the natural sciences which began three centuries ago. Among its best known advocates were Gladstone, Wilson and Chamberlain. Its belief is that private morality is superior to that of a nation, as can be seen by the following quotation from Gladstone, who said "I look forward with confidence to the day when the ethics of nations will be that of the individuals". This theory holds that by sufficient patient research a means can be found of bringing the ethics of international politics up to the standards of private ethics. This is based on three assumptions. Firstly, that there is a fundamental harmony of interest between nations. That they all want certain things which in this

The annual campus campaign to raise funds for International Student Service, the Combined Charities and the Red Cross opens today with a team of 24 co-eds canvassing various campus organizations and individual students. The total objective of the campaign is $13,500.

Give! Give! Give!

Sue Bishop, chairman of the canvassing committee, has issued an appeal to all students to support the drive generously to meet the growing needs of the Combined Charities, which includes Protestant, Roman Catholic and Jewish organizations, and larger funds needed by both the Red Cross and International Student Service.

The Red Cross alone has estimated that it will need about 50 per cent more this year to finance expansion in the free blood transfusion service and other added expenses.

The canvassing at Dawson College is under the chairmanship of John Dinsmore, first-year engineering student.

I.S.S. Projects

The McGill International Student Service Committee, in conjunction with the Canadian Committee which has representatives at 20 colleges and universities across the country, plans to bring four European students to McGill next fall. Two of these students would be D.P. students, who will remain in Canada, and two would be other European students, who would be pledged to return to their own country after one year at McGill.

The McGill committee also plans to contribute to relief funds for universities in France, Greece and India.

Weizman's 'Trial and Error' Reviewed by Dr. Wasserman

On Friday, March 4, Dr. Rachel Wasserman, Assistant Professor of English at Sir George Williams College, addressed a joint assembly of students from Sir George and McGill. Dr. Wasserman reviewed the current book Trial and Error, which is the autobiography of Chaim Weizman, first president of the State of Israel.

Dr. Wasserman said that the book is essentially a political narrative. It is the story of Zionism, a movement which began as a Utopian dream in the minds of a few western Europeans, and which spread and aroused interest in all parts of the world.

The major point of this narrative is the difference in the attitudes toward Zionism of Weizman and such men as Herzl and Nordau. Born and raised in an eastern European ghetto, Weizman regarded a Jewish National home as an immediate and vital necessity, while Herzl and other Western intellectuals thought of it as something that required little immediate action but could be attained over a long period of years. These men had never known the same curtailments of personal freedom that Weizman knew, and to him it was an urgent matter. Weizman charges that Nor-dau had a patronizing attitude and a supercilious tone when they talked together.

Another point about the narrative is the way in which he treats the famous figures of Zionism. He revitalizes them and rips away much of the myth which often grows about the mythical greatness of character which often grows about such figures after their death. He portrays them authentically, with their due measures of human frailty, and in so doing may sadly disillusion many Zionists. His method of writing here resembles that of George Bernard Shaw.

Dr. Rachel Wasserman is a graduate of McGill University. She obtained her M.A. at Harvard and her Ph.D. at Cornell. She is very active in Montreal Jewish circles.

In dealing with the book, Dr. Wasserman remarked on its timely appearance. It was published at the very instant that the Zionist dream of a Jewish state was realized, and upon the eve of the author's own personal triumph in the first Israeli National elections. It is indeed a work of great benefit to all readers interested in gaining an insight into the lives and work of the men who brought about the realization of that dream.

WOMEN'S UNION

The semi-annual meeting of the Women's Union, at which candidates for the elections on March 9 will speak, is to be held today at 4 p.m. in the R.V.C. Common Room. The headline in Friday's Daily announcing the day of meeting as Wednesday was incorrect—as was the statement that the president's and treasurer's reports would be presented at 4.30. The candidates' speeches begin at 4.30. Refreshments will be served.

POST-GRAD STUDENTS

Next Friday, March 11, the Post-

Graduate Students' Society will hold the March general meeting in the Union Grillroom at 8 p.m. Main purpose of the meeting is the election of senior council members (president, vice-president, secretary and treasurer) for 1949-50 and discussion of the Treasurer's report. After the meeting there will be dancing and refreshments, including beer, wine, turkey and ham.

President Men's Union

Jack Crepeau

Pen Sketch

While Jack Crepeau is known as the spirited enthusiast of the campus, he is another individual, most sincere and conscientious, to the many who have worked with him. He is the only President of the Union in the last five years who has put life into the Executive and by having everybody work with him has made some definite improvements. Many more are on the way. Previous executives found ways of spending easily but it took Jack Crepeau to raise $5,000 from the Women's Union and an additional $4,000 from varied sources. This type of creative thinking only will put the Union on its feet!

No other man has qualified himself so properly for the Presidency of the Union by continued interest and active participation in almost every phase of student activities! Activities during the 1948-1949 session: President of the Union, Chairman of the Union House Committee, Member of the Students' Council, Chairman of the Dates Committee, Member of the Scarlet Key, and a member of many S.E.C. Special committees.

Len Harbour

Pen Sketch

Len Harbour entered McGill University three years ago with two scholarships as major marks on his preceding scholastic record. Since then, besides maintaining this record, he has become engaged in many worthy campus activities. His experience has been built up through a series of campus positions of increasing importance. His capable administration of McGill's largest undergraduate society has proved him to be the man who will bring to the Union the direction it requires.

Activities—

1. President, Arts & Science Undergraduate Society, 1948-49.
 2. Red and White Revue, 1948 and 1949.
 3. 2nd. Vice-President, Arts and Science Undergraduate Society, '47-'48.

"Ben" Nyeste

Pen Sketch

The position of President of the McGill Union is one that calls for a man with ability, both as a leader and as an organizer. It also calls for experience. In nominating "Ben" Nyeste for this position, we feel that he not only possesses these qualifications, but that he will exercise them to the full, for the good of the student body. His past record has shown that he will give wholeheartedly of his time and energy in support of any undertaking which he tackles.

He received his basic training at Dawson College, and is at present in third year B.Sc. at McGill. He was the Social Chairman of Dawson College, and organized their dances. He was a member of the S.E.C. and Chairman of the Freshman Reception Committee for Dawson, as well as being on the Freshman Reception Committee at McGill. He was also a member of the Arts & Science Undergraduates Society for one year.

This year, on the McGill campus, Ben has made many friends with his geniality and sincerity. We feel sure that he will be both conscientious and resourceful in representing the interests of the student body.

Secretary McGill Union

Stanley Grossman

Pen Sketch

Stan has been a very active student since he joined the McGill School of Commerce two years ago. He has participated in all phases of campus activities, including athletic, social, and cultural events. Such activities as Athletics Nights, Model Parliaments, and Student Society meetings all find Stan equally enthusiastic and willing to play his full part.

Stan has been interested in the 'Daily' since he first came to McGill, and is now a Senior Staff Writer. He worked hard for the McGill Fund Drive in the fall, and is currently working for the I.S.S. Campaign.

We know that Stan will make a first rate secretary of the Union. He is fully aware of the responsibilities of the job, and his executive experience, and his undoubted campus spirit will stand him in good stead.

Platform

There are several things that, I elected, I will endeavor to do. First on my list is to try to establish a book cooperative in the Union, in order that students will be able to buy the necessary books at a lower price.

I will ask for more chairs to alleviate the chair shortage at noon hour. At present, many students are unable to find seats in the Grill or Reading Rooms at lunch time.

I will try to have the Union House Committee sponsor many dances. These dances, when held in the Union have a very friendly informal atmosphere, and will help make 'ends meet' as far as the Union budget is concerned.

As one who frequently eats in the Union, I will see that the meals and sandwiches are of the best standards for their prices.

There are still several improvements to be made. One of them will be the placement of waste paper baskets about the Union in order to keep it in a cleaner state than it is at present.

Those people who attend the Union know of the stuffy hot atmosphere in the building. I will ask for improved ventilation in order that the students may be able to sit about in a more comfortable atmosphere.

Marvin Meiorwitz

Pen Sketch

Marv is a third year Arts student majoring in economics. This year he played senior football for the Redmen, and is presently training with the boxing team, and playing in the play THUNDER ROCK. He comes to McGill from Syracuse University, where he also played football. There he proved his administrative ability by setting up a workable and successful book exchange. He also wrote for the university paper and radio station WAER.

Marv was a bombardier in the Navy Air corps. He served in the Caribbean during the German submarine, and then in the Asiatic-Pacific theatre.

We know that he is a competent and efficient worker, and that his ideas concerning the Union are good and sound, and practical.

M. HAYS.

Platform

In the years past much work has been put into the book exchange, but it is still in need of reorganization. An exchange where students can swiftly buy, sell and locate second hand books would be a tremendous campus service. It can be done without the help of University authorities. If successful, it can be the seed to a non-profit co-operative bookstore; operated right in the union and under the student union auspices.

I shall like to see other improvements in union facilities and in the food served in the cafeteria. As secretary I shall co-operate with the student body and university officers to make the union a smooth running organization and a healthy contributor to the campus.

Bill Satterthwaite

Pen Sketch

William Satterthwaite is a newcomer to the School of Commerce and has brought the new ideas that the Union desperately needs. Not realized by many students and some candidates is the fact that the position of Secretary of the McGill Union should be a full-time job. Bill has made a striking impression on the undersigned, as someone who will do an excellent job in anything he undertakes. The Union is a $25,000.00 enterprise, which if not run carefully and efficiently will fall despite all resolutions. Bill's meticulous care to details and financial problems would be a terrific asset. Also, he would be just the type of person to help carry forward the planned extension to the Grill room next Autumn, and the setting-up of the new soda-fountain. Bill is an out-of-towner who is concerned with the Union problems and activities, and could be counted on as a conscientious and hard-working member of the House Committee Executive.

CHRISTOPHER BOVEY,
ROBERT PATERSON.

Platform

The office of secretary requires an active co-operation with the Union House Committee in our management, and drive for the improvement of the Union.

I will undertake to give my time and efforts in active co-operation for this position in the Union, not merely enjoying the privileges of the accommodation offered in the building.

I suggest:

The position of Secretary of the Women's Union requires a person who is dependable, enthusiastic and definitely willing to work. Since Stevie came to McGill from Mount Allison University she has shown all these qualities. She has worked hard and well as representative for Phys. Ed. on the McGill Fund Campaign and has been asked again to represent her faculty in the Combined Carities Campaign.

In addition to these activities she has still found time to express her interest in the Annual by working on the sales committee, and in the Winter Carnival as a member of the much talked of Skating Chorus, and has also devoted much of her time to backstage work and ticket sales. Stevie is known for her willingness to co-operate, and her faculty to speak up when something needs to be said. We can guarantee that with her election the women at McGill will be very sapably represented on the Women's Union.

Candidates For President Student's Society

Election Procedure

The following extract from the report of the S.E.C. election committee outlines the procedure to be followed in the elections on March 9.

The Faculty representatives shall be the Returning Officers in their respective Faculties. Their duties shall be as follows:

A. To make all administrative arrangements for the proper conduct of the elections in their respective Faculties.

B. To appoint the minimum number of Assistant Returning Officers necessary for the efficient conduct of the election.

C. To pick up the ballot boxes, ballots and voting lists at the McGill Union between 8:15 and 8:40 a.m., Tuesday, March 9, and to return same to the Union at 4:15 p.m. on the same day.

D. To assist in counting the ballots. (Each Faculty Representative must bring one assistant to help count ballots after the election.)

E. In the event that any Faculty Representative is unable to perform his duties, he must name a deputy who must meet with the approval of the S.E.C.

Each candidate must name a scrutineer and submit his name to the Chief Returning Officer (in the S.E.C. office in the Union) before 5 p.m., Monday, March 7. The duties of the candidate's scrutineer shall be to visit the polls to satisfy himself and his candidate that the election is being properly conducted; and to scrutinize the counting of the ballots after the election.

Balotting:

A. All students whose names are on the voting list shall have the franchise.

B. Voters shall initial the voting lists beside their names. Otherwise, the voting lists shall be secret.

C. All ballots must be initialed by the Returning Officers on the top left-hand corner before given to voters.

D. Specimens of the initials and signatures of all the Returning Officers must accompany the ballot boxes to the Union after the election.

E. No one may attempt to influence student opinion in the same room where polling is being made.

C.I.C. GENERAL MEETING

There will be a general meeting of the C.I.C. Tuesday, March 8, in Room 204 of the Chemistry building at 1 o'clock.

Peter Daniels

Pen Sketch

Pete is a third year Science Student who spent his first two years in the university at Dawson College. He is a veteran with a record of eighteen months overseas.

His stay at Dawson was an active one, both in sports and in student government. His sports activities included a season with the Silver Sevens intramural basketball team. His record in administrative and committee work, however, is all that is needed to recommend him for the highest position in our student government.

He served on the Educational and Cultural Committee of the Arts & Science Undergraduate Society at Dawson. He was elected chairman of the Mess Committee and was appointed Vice-President and later Acting President of the Dawson S.E.C.

During his entire year on the council, (it was not an easy one), he did every job efficiently and, what is most important to him, fairly.

Because of his past performance, and our confidence in what he can and will do in the future, we recommend him, without reservation, for the office he seeks.

RALPH W. SNYDER B. Sc. 3,
I. A. IAN FERRIER B. Arch 2.

Platform

I aim to have more and better co-operation with Dawson College, by inviting one of the members of their Students' Council to attend the meeting of the McGill S.E.C., as an observer, in order that the students at Dawson College may be aware of what is happening in town.

Unfortunately, in the past, the book exchange in the McGill Union has been slow in beginning to operate when it is needed most—

Born in Rossland, B.C., Dave moved to England with his parents in 1937, and left Cambridge in 1940 to join the army. After receiving his commission, he was sent as a Sapper Officer to the Indian Army operating in Burma. He was captured by the Japs, but a subsequent escape led to further service in Malaya and Java and the winning of the Military Cross and a mention in Despatches. By 1944 he was a Major — the youngest in the Indian Army — and commanding a Field Company. Following a year's service in Italy after the war he returned to Canada and entered Engineering at Dawson.

He is now President of the Cosmo Club which, under his guidance, has become the second largest club on the Campus, and one of the most active. As Captain he led the Rugby Team to victory in the Intercollegiate Championship games. His other activities this year include service as a member of a Winter Carnival Committee, as Assistant Publicity Manager for the E.U.S., as a member of the Editorial Board of "The McGill Engineer," and as a "Daily" Staff Photographer.

In his varied activities Dave has proven himself the possessor of initiative, drive and enthusiasm linked with the indispensable ability to work in co-operation with others. These qualities of leadership and his unlimited capacity for work guarantee that he will make good the objectives of his platform. The University needs such a leader.

Euan Howard

Pen Sketch

Euan Howard is a man with both principles and ability. We are convinced that as President of the Students' Society he will bring qualities of leadership which will take tiresome pettiness out of campus politics.

Born in Scotland and educated at Elton and Cambridge, he served for four years with M.T.B.s. in the Royal Navy, rising to the rank of Lieutenant, and entered McGill at Dawson three years ago. He has made a great impression on all those who have worked with him both at McGill and Dawson, showing himself in many campus activities capable of giving the University the high standard of student government it deserves.

It is a rare thing for a man of such calibre to be a candidate for office at McGill. He will rid us of cheap politics and weak-kneed politicians, giving McGill students a leader who will lead honourably, constructively and fairly.

We recommend Euan Howard without qualification for the highest post within our gift.

Frank Hughes

Pen Sketch

Montrealer Frank Hughes interrupted his education ten years ago to join the army; turned down as under age he worked in a war plant until he enlisted in the R.C.A.F. in 1942. When he enlisted he had risen to chief clerk in the office, and was a member of the Junior Board of Management of a Y.M.C.A. and president of their Public Speaking Club.

After four years in the Air Force as navigator and Intelligence Officer, Frank entered McGill. He was at once sent to Dawson—which he thought he had left behind forever when commissioned from that station in '43.

Since coming to McGill, Frank has been interested in Debating and in the Liberal Club.

Frank is capable of both administering and leading—his experience before coming to McGill shows this. His powers of persuasion are amply shown by his feat of inducing two of the most consummate cowards at McGill into leading an underprivileged horse into the Union last Thursday.

JOHN PIPER,
DES. THOMAS.

Platform

Let's face it! McGill has become a "Street-car College". Every day, thousands of students come to the university, attend lectures and go home. This is the extent of their college activity.

To my mind, one of the things that is lacking on the campus is some provision for an exchange of ideas rather than the mere spreading of propaganda. I would strive to remedy this condition by working for more informal meetings between students and between students and professors. This would

Colin McCallum

Pen Sketch

In supporting the candidacy of Colin McCallum for the presidency of the Students' Society, we do so with the conviction that his experience and personal qualities admirably equip him to conduct the affairs of that office.

If you consider that such qualities as a wide interest in campus activities and actual executive experience in dealing with the many problems that arise therefrom are prerequisites for such a post, then you will find that Colin's record justifies your support.

Colin started studying engineering at McGill prior to his enlistment, and at that time he had shown his interest in sporting activities by playing on the rugby team and boxing for the engineers in an interfaculty tournament. In the Navy, where he served as an officer on both Canadian and British ships, Colin gained the post of flotilla sports officer.

Upon returning to McGill, while he continued his interest in sports, Colin served on the Players' Club executive at Dawson college. This was followed by a term as Chairman of the Engineering Debating Society. Then he was elected as the engineering representative to the Students' Executive Council, in which position he also served as a member of the executive of the Engineering Undergraduate Society, thus gaining an intimate knowledge of activities at that undergraduate level. His considerable contribution to the Students' Executive Council was recognized by his election to the position of vice-president of the Students' Society, in which post he has handled, at the Campus level of activities, many of the difficult problems presented to the Council.

George Neuspier

Pen Sketch

We have every confidence in recommending George Neuspier for President of the Students' Society on the basis of his record at McGill. An honors student, George has also been very active in campus affairs ever since he came to the University.

After serving overseas for five years with the Canadian Intelligence Corps, George came to Dawson in 1947. During his first term there he was President of the Dawson Arts & Science Undergraduate Society and a S & S representative on the Students Council, which he very ably filled. He was also the first President of the Dawson Student Labour Club, which he helped found.

Since coming to McGill, George has been a member of the executive of the Historical Society and for two consecutive years the President of the McGill S.L.C., in which office he has distinguished himself as a most outspoken fighter for student democracy and civil liberties on our campus. Last summer, George took part in the Beaver Brigade tour of Europe.

George will prove a vigorous champion of the rights of all students to run their own affairs without arbitrary interference. He will fight continually for all popular measures and will at all times represent to the best of his ability the rights and interests of all the students, regardless of certain non-student pressure groups, to which student leaders in the past have been subjected.

Chester Riggi

Pen Sketch

Chester Riggi is now in his second year of Honors Chemistry and in his two years has shown himself not only to be popular and well-known among his fellow students, but also to be keenly interested in campus affairs.

In all, impromptu discussions of problems and ideas pertinent to the McGill campus it is almost invariably Chester who comes up with the suggestion that brings agreement to the group involved in the talk.

Chester Riggi has gained the respect and admiration of his fellow men by being able to take an active part in campus life and sports and still be one of the top men in his class when the marks are posted.

It is indeed for his levelheadedness, intelligence, and his ability to weigh situations and conditions in the face of confusion that we nominate and support Chester Riggi for the position of President of the Students' Society.

Although he will be a part of the McGill campus next year, it is regrettable that the main body of the students at the university have not known him for his personality and ability.

As it is your duty to select the man that you feel will be the best man to represent you on the S.E.C. we feel you could do no better than to put Chester Riggi in that office.

Vice-President McGill Union

Douglas Johnstone

Pen Sketch

As a man sincerely interested in every aspect of the social and academic life on the campus, we do not hesitate in recommending Douglas Johnstone for election as Vice-President of the McGill Union. Having known him for many years, we recognize in his mature personality an executive ability and clear judgment, a combination so necessary in these controversial times.

Doug was educated at Lisgar Collegiate in Ottawa. While there he rapidly demonstrated his organizational ability, and soon rose to a leading position in student affairs. This activity coupled with his war experience makes of Doug an eminently capable person in administering successfully an executive position on the campus.

Doug enlisted in 1941 in the Royal Canadian Artillery as a private, and within a very short period rose to a commissioned rank. He saw action with the First Canadian Division in Italy and Holland. Returning to Canada in 1946, he entered McGill after spending a year at Dawson. He is now a 3rd year student in Honours Maths and Physics. At present Doug is Publicity Director of the Student Labour Club.

Doug's opinions are guided primarily by those principles which make democracy and free speech the bulwark against all encroachments.

Harry Miller

Pen Sketch

Since 1946, when he arrived at McGill, Harry has been taking an active part in campus activities. He started at the bottom—doing the "dirty work"—mimeographing, decorating, chairing debates—but his ability was soon recognized and he was appointed Chairman of the Arts and Science Organization Committee. Rising rapidly to positions of greater responsibility, he was appointed by the S.E.C. to the Chairmanship of all the fund-raising campaigns on the campus this year. Under his direction, the campus McGill Fund Drive raised more money than has ever before been collected from the students.

With all his activities, Harry has spent a large proportion of his time in the Union getting to know its problems and needs. This coupled with his great organizing ability and his determination to be fair at all costs, fits Harry Miller for the position of Vice-President of the McGill Union.

Bill Nichols transferred to McGill from Syracuse University in Sept. 1948. He is now in his Second Year Commerce. During his stay here Bill has played on the senior football team, has boxed and helped to coach the college team. He has taken keen interest in Campus activity, and has also served as social concener at the Ross House.

Platform

I realize that the job of Vice-President of the Union can be made into an important one. A Vice-President must take over when the president is away and that is exactly what I intend to do, along with any other duties which may be assigned to me by the President.

I make no great list of promises based upon promises which have been made by candidates in the past. I see the job of Vice-President as one in which I will have to work with, and for, anyone who may become President. Naturally I shall keep the Students' best interest in mind at all times. Above all I believe in the enforcement of Union House Rules through the proper procedure.

WILLIAM J. NICHOLS.

Walter Tilden

Pen Sketch

Walt, one of the most capable men on the campus, is qualified in every respect for the job as vice-president of the Men's Union.

Since his return to McGill this year, from the Royal Canadian Naval College, Walt has plunged into a varied field of extra-curricular activities. During the fall he was a member of the championship water polo and rugby teams. In the winter he maintained his interest in athletics by becoming a member of the championship intermediate ski team. Not content with this he was appointed to the S.E.C.'s financial committee. He worked this year on the Red and White Revue as financial advisor for the S.E.C. and did a bang-up job. This was all accomplished while maintaining a high scholastic record in third year commerce.

Those who have met Walt, and those who have known him, admire respect and like him. He is industrious, capable, hard working and possessed with a clear headed (business) approach to any problem. For those who do not know him, his record speaks for itself. He has done a great deal in a short time in McGill and has done everything well.

Kayo Little

Pen Sketch

Kayo Little's ingenuity and popularity have given her a fine reputation and she is known to every girl on the campus as a hard worker. Ever since Kayo's arrival from Boston she has sparked campus activities by her unfailing enthusiasm and tireless energy in both executive positions such as Red Wing President and small jobs such as working in our chorus line. Her quick smile and willingness to help have made her a favourite with both Freshie and Senior alike.

In her first year she served as Freshman representative on the RVC House Committee and was elected to the Red Wing Society. When she returned in her second year she maintained a high academic standing in addition to being on the Freshman Reception Committee, the Winter Carnival staff, and working for the Charities Campaign. This year she is Secretary of the RVC House Committee and was elected to her present status as Member-at-Large to the Women's Union.

With this fine record, we, knowing her well, feel that she is best suited to this job to carry on in the position that has been so ably filled this year.

1946-47. Dear Diary

We see that Nan's experience as a Prefect at G.H.S. came in handy for she was appointed to the Educational Committee of the Arts & Science Undergraduate Society. This year she became an Arts and Science Team Captain and did some canvassing. Nancy devoted a lot of time and energy to this work.

1947-48

Look what she's doing this year! She's working with the Drama and Interfaith group. We can't figure out where she's found time to organize the Big Sister Program for the Freshman Reception Committee. Her enthusiastic spirit is coupled with unlimited capacity for Leadership.

1948-49

Before classes started Nancy was again preparing for the Freshman Reception: this time as Chairman. She is also a member of the Hillside Governing Board. As though that wasn't enough, after election as member-at-large last fall, she handled publicity for the Women's Union.

And now she's up for President — she certainly would make a good one!

Bill Errington

Pen Sketch

Bill, a third year Commerce, is interested in all types of athletics. He came to McGill after four years at St. Andrew's College where he starred on the senior football, hockey, swimming, and basketball teams. He also played intermediate football both at Dawson and at McGill. During the last three years he has swum for the McGill senior team and has topped his swimming career by being elected co-captain and manager and by leading the McGill Swimmers to their first intercollegiate championship in 12 years.

Not only has Bill been a leading athlete but he has also taken part in many campus activities, including Athletics Nights and the McGill Winter Carnival. His sincerity and good nature enable him to co-operate with people and thereby endow him with the necessary executive ability for the position.

We heartily recommend Bill Errington to you as the Student Representative to the Student's Athletic Board. His background as an athlete, his familiarity with the organization of the athletics at McGill, the respect that he commands as a leader, and his fundamental good nature, indicate that he is fully qualified to fill the position.

Born in Montreal, Bob was educated at Westmont High School before being selected to attend Royal Roads Naval College in B.C. While there, Bob distinguished himself in both academic and athletic fields. In his senior term, he played senior rugby, won the mid-dleweight boxing championship, stood first in studies, and won the trophy for the best all-round cadet.

Since his arrival at McGill, Bob has displayed his enthusiasm in all phases of athletics. A member of the Intermediate football team last fall, he is also a senior boxer. Bob has served on the Athletics Night Committee and was elected last December to the Scarlet Key.

In view of his past record, and due to the fact that he has two more years at McGill, and can thus devote experience gained on the Athletics Board to future participation in campus athletic activities, we feel that Bob McAllister is the best choice for Student's Representative to the Athletics Board.

The Union House Committee this year initiated numerous plans which when carried to a successful conclusion will in effect radically change the whole Union . . . In its financial relationship, in its physical aspect and in its general outlook. It is for the purpose of finishing this job that I have chosen to stand for reelection as President of the Union.

The Union House Committee's negotiations with the University authorities are progressing well. Such negotiations call for the complete reversal of policy on the part of student and University administrative bodies. It is high time that we forget about the new, modern Union that may be given to us in twenty-five years time and now start thinking of improving the present facilities of the building. The Union as it has been forced to operate now has reached a point where it is a disgrace to every self-respecting student on the campus. Major changes must be effected this summer, and the key to the solution of our greatest problems is a 40 feet extension to the Grill Room permitting us to build a new spacious soda fountain and snack bar, thereby increasing the revenue of the Union. Below the Grill room, in this new extension, a large student book store could be opened and benefit the whole student body immensely. Adequate checking facilities could also be provided to relieve the pressure on the Tuck Shop and permit George Foster or a student employee to operate an appropriate Souvenir and Cigar Store.

Obviously, only the University authorities, as the registered owners of the Union, could make such a large scale capital expenditure. They have been presented with the skeleton plans and blue prints, and while studying the matter more in details they are awaiting the student reaction to the new policy of the present House Committee.

Beside following the policy stated above, I propose to do my utmost to reorganize for:

1. Reorganization of the present Inefficient Dates Committee by making it part of the social committee of the Council (Red and White Society.)
2. Administration of the Union as a Private Club, (as it is supposed to be, e.g. no peddlers, etc.)
3. Increase of Revenue by all means possible and reasonable, particularly through the sponsoring of regular Saturday night Dances . . . with the co-operation of the various interested clubs and societies on the campus. This is imperative because the universal fee does not cover the running expenses of the Union and unless additional revenue is forthcoming we will continue with deficit financing to have no monies available for the minor alterations and improvements which the Union so obviously needs.
4. Gradual replacement of the outmoded and worn-out kitchen equipment, thereby solving the problem of cheaper and better food. This is a obligation of utmost importance towards the students living away from home.

If elected, I will do my utmost to continue to bring to the McGill Union House Committee and to the Students' Executive Council the expression of the most diversified groups of opinions on the campus. No Union problem is insoluble providing they are pursued by an experienced and energetic executive!

Platform

The President of the McGill Union has three main duties. If elected to this position I shall apply myself to these duties in the following manner.

1. Chairman of the Dates Committee — A glance at the college calendar for 1948-49 will show that many of the biggest events were crammed between the end of January and the beginning of March. This terrific activity: three formal, Red and White Revue, Dawson Athletics Night, Winter Carnival, Smokers, Club Events, the Arena Wing, takes the students' time and pocket-books, as well as the budgets provided for these events. The confusion can be remedied through careful planning, on the part of the Dates Committee, in conjunction with the sponsors of these events, well before the beginning of next year. I shall see that the numerous activities on this campus are dated so that there is minimum of conflict and a maximum of participation, both at Dawson and McGill.

2. Member of the S.E.C. — In this capacity I shall:

- (i) represent the Men's Union wholeheartedly.
- (ii) press for the formation of an Educational Committee in the Students' Society, through which the students will have the opportunity to express their opinions, to the faculty, on courses, faculty methods, etc., and how they can be improved.
- (iii) press for the establishment of an efficient social and publicity committee which will supplement the S.E.C.'s financial support to smaller clubs, by aiding in ticket sales, etc., publicly, thereby allowing the club to concentrate on better programme.

- (iv) press for the centralization of campus theatrical groups to allow for continuity in their organizations.

3. Chairman of the Union House Committee — The financial support now coming from the Women's Union will enlarge the budget. This will help to further the improvement of the Union needs.

- (i) Brighter and sturdier table-tops in the grill room will do much to lend a cheerful atmosphere there.
- (ii) A modern Snack Bar, in the Grill Room, will replace the old one, facilitating ordering of food and avoiding long queues.
- (iii) More office space can be had by enlarging the Workshop Room and moving the telephone booths to the lobby.

I assure the men that I shall maintain a strict control on the budget and will fulfill my duties with all my energy.

I hereby promise, realizing the responsibilities and power that go with being President of the McGill Union and Chairman of the House Committee, that if I am elected, those powers will never be abused.

I firmly believe in our democratic principles, and I will at all times act accordingly in all relationships with the student body.

A Co-operative Book Service is a necessity, and I will work for the establishment of this service. As Chairman of the Dates Committee I will attempt to prevent the crowding of major campus events into a period of two weeks, as two excellent productions recently overlapped, preventing the average student from attending both.

I have served the Dawson Student Society before; I know their problems, and I feel that I am capable of representing them again. The McGill Union is essentially a students' club to be run for the students. It is with this constantly in mind that I hope to work for the improvement and expansion of existing facilities.

First I would like to thank those who nominated me to the position of President of the M.W.S.A.A., and state that if I am elected I will do my best to fulfil the confidence placed in me.

The Council this year has done a good job and a few points have been approved but were unable to be carried out. If I am elected I should try to see that these suggestions are put into effect, as they are for the benefit of the Women's sports on this Campus.

They are:

- (1) A ski instructor for the R.V.C. Ski House. This instructor would be a M.S.P.E. student who has been to ski school and has passed the course with good marks in instruction.

- (2) I would see that the plan for a Leadership Course goes into effect. This is a course suggested by the Council and planned by Miss Woods of the M.S.P.E. Department, and is to train leaders for community leadership.

- (3) I would like to see a higher award given in athletics than the Senior M. Something in the form of a trophy about which there are definite rules for winning. It would be for excellence in sports and leadership in athletics.

- (4) I would try to have a few speakers in to talk on sports to women. It might be someone on football, hockey or men's basketball, so that women could understand these games better when they go to see them, or on a sport of which we are unfamiliar.

I am not making the above points definite promises but I will endeavor to carry them out if elected. I will promise however, to work with the council, and to listen to any suggestions received, which are for the benefit of the system.

as the beginning of the session. This condition will be looked into and an attempt made to increase its efficiency.

I will emphasize the administration of university affairs because I am of the firm belief that pretty policies have to place on the campus. However, all student matters will be handled impartially.

In order that the students may know what their executive is doing, I will see that the minutes of executive meetings are posted on a prominent bulletin board for the inspection of all students.

In conclusion, if elected, I will do my job as I see fit, to the best of my ability, as sincerely and honestly as I possibly can.

PETER DANIELS.

David FloyerPlatform

As a candidate for the presidency of the S.E.C., I advocate a policy of active co-ordination and continuous improvement of student administration. I will at all times defend the constitutional rights of the S.E.C. to act freely, in accordance with representative student opinion. Regular and detailed reports on S.E.C. meetings will be made available to all.

While recognizing the value of all phases of students' life, I believe that education is the prime function of a university. Some of the improvements necessary in this field are:

- (1) A co-operative bookstore for all faculties.
- (2) A professor-student common room or similar meeting ground.
- (3) Early publication of prospectus, timetables, and schedules of the year's work to be undertaken in each course.
- (4) Continuous investigation into the need for new courses.
- (5) The institution and support of faculty education committees such as that existing in Arts and Science.

Extra curricular life could be made richer and more productive by the S.E.C.'s interest in, and assistance to, those clubs contributing to the University as a whole. The efficient organization of the Dates Committee plus improvement and enlargement of the Union are immediate requirements. Athletic and special activities would receive my wholehearted support.

In general then, though I decline to make promises which require ratification by your representatives on the Council, I pledge myself to work energetically for improvement in student life at McGill. An enthusiastic university spirit can only be a product of greater interest in the University, which in turn requires greater endeavor and achievement.

DAVID FLOYER.

is not adequate. I am convinced that it is adequate and I promise to put a stop to this endless pursuit of red herrings. I do not regard it as one of the functions of the President of the Students' Society to do the students' political thinking for them.

Wider student participation in the Winter Carnival and its organization would help to create a genuine enthusiasm on the campus as well as enhancing the name of the University outside. The S.E.C. should render all possible assistance to this end.

Hardships have been suffered by this year's Dawson students as a result of the attempt to pay off the debt incurred last year by the Dawson Students' Council. Since the great majority of those who benefited from last year's overspending will next year be at McGill, there is no reason why McGill should not bear a fair proportion of the remaining debt.

The experience of the E.U.S. and most Universities is that a co-operative bookstore would be of great assistance to students in cutting down the increasingly heavy cost of textbooks. I cannot believe it would be impossible to establish such a store both here and at Dawson and the S.E.C. should take the initiative in this matter.

Above all, the Students' Council must be restored to a position of respect in the minds of the students. This can be achieved by the exercise of common-sense, restraint, and rising above petty issues.

EUAN HOWARD.

be done by extending the basic program of the Freshman Reception Committee, Gen Nites and Professors' Teas as part of an extensive program that would enable any student to meet the teaching staff, members of student clubs and committees on an informal basis throughout his or her entire undergraduate years. Let's all get to know each other better.

For years, the Senate has vetoed the idea of Cheerleaderettes. The Senate does not realize fully the feeling of students on this subject. If elected, I propose to hold a meeting of the Students Society during the first week or two of the first term to let the Senate know that the students are elated! A motion for cheerleaderettes adopted at this meeting plus a petition with about 6000 names could not be ignored.

At present, an exaggerated importance is given to a few Communist students at McGill! I do not believe in making martyrs out of Communists at McGill or anywhere else. This plays into their hands by giving them a chance to represent themselves as champions of the under-dog. All we do is help them spread their propaganda. I would treat the L.P.P. club as any other campus group, allowing them the same rights etc. However, they, in turn, would have to operate within the limits imposed on other campus clubs. Any infringement of Student Society regulations by the L.P.P. Club would be dealt with justly and firmly, without any fuss or bother, in the same manner that any other club in a similar position would be treated.

Let's drop doing exactly what the Communists want us to do!

If elected, I promise to support all worthwhile student organizations, and to work in the interest of the majority of students, completely independent of any clique or pressure group which may exist now or form during the next year.

It is the President of the Students' Society's responsibility, through active participation himself in many cases, to see to it that the Students' Society, its Executive Council, and its committees and organizations are capable and efficiently run for the benefit and increased enjoyment of the men and women at McGill.

I do not believe in discrimination against anyone or any group of people, but consider that all should abide by the rules of the Students' Society.

With these points in mind I submit to you a very brief outline of my plans if elected to the Presidency of the Students' Society.

1. The establishment of a Book Service to commence operations in October, 1950 so as to achieve considerable saving to students purchasing their required text-books.
2. The purchase of a multilith printing machine for use by the Undergraduate Societies, the Men and Women's Union and S.E.C., so that reports, minutes, etc., may be rapidly and economically duplicated in large numbers.
3. The inauguration of a yearly Charity Ball to eliminate the present long series of Campaigns held throughout the college year.
4. The formation of curriculum committees in co-operation with the Undergraduate Society executives.
5. The transfer of the Band to the S.A.C. so that more financial support and facilities may be given to this organization.
6. Active co-operation with the Athletics Board, and especially the S.A.C.

7. Full support to such organizations as the Choral Society, the Red and White Revue, Players' Club, the Annual, and the like.
8. Increased cultural activities on the campus through the promotion of a Students' Council Concert series with top-rate artists.

In conclusion, may I say that, if elected to this position, I shall earnestly and sincerely devote my efforts to the welfare of the students of McGill University.

McGill I believe that common decency and dignity, which have been conspicuous by their absence this session, must be restored to our campus. I feel that my fellow students want a real guarantee from their next Students' Society President that freedom of opinion and assembly will not be violated on flimsy pretexts or muzzled at Students' Society meetings.

Therefore, if elected, I pledge myself to discharge the duties of my office in a dignified, democratic manner — following not only the rules but also the spirit of parliamentary procedure. I am opposed to student government behind closed doors. I will fight for:

1. A Student Bill of Rights to protect campus democracy from any infringements to be an integral part of our Students' Society Constitution.
2. All S.E.C. meetings open to all students who wish to observe them.
3. Student participation in the planning of University expansion.
4. Active co-operation with the National Federation of Canadian University Students, to make NFCUS a powerful organization to which every Canadian student will be proud to belong.
5. Support the NCFUS demand for "Civilian DVA Grants" so that financial difficulties may never be a barrier to University education.
6. Implementation of plans for an extensive non-profit Students Book Co-op.
7. Support the demand for an increase in basic DVA allowance put forward by the NCFUS.
8. Make McGill's weight felt at the next NCFUS conference by fighting for full affiliation to the International Union of Students to:

- a) promote world peace and student friendship;
- b) expand international students exchange and scholarships;
- c) participate in the many activities of IUS, such as International Winter Festivals and Track and Field Days.

9. Bring about a better understanding with our fellow students throughout the world by encouraging student participation in vacation tours in foreign countries. The Students Society should send an observer to the IUS Congress and Festival this summer.

10. A bigger Winter Carnival with entries from famous universities throughout the world. This is my TEN POINT PROGRAM for a NEW DEAL at McGill — for a students government of the students, for the students and no-one but the students.

elections and throughout the coming year, they can become reality. Fully realizing the danger of positive promises, I am quite prepared to go to you the students for a vote of confidence if any of these objectives are blocked.

These are my objectives:

1. Centralization of all extra-curricular activities. At the present time the athletic and social activities at McGill lack the necessary centralization as to make them readily accessible to all students. It is my plan to bring these activities to a central point or location, but due to lack of space, I will have to leave the details to campaign speeches.
2. The inauguration of a drive for the construction of a new students' Union preferably adjacent to the present site of the Sir Arthur Currie Gymnasium. This can be accomplished without direct cost to the students or the University. Once again the details must be left to campaign speeches.
3. A complete investigation of the situation involving the active discouragement towards the minor sports at McGill. It is my opinion that McGill is too large an institution to deny sports to any of its students.
4. A book service for all faculties similar to the one now in operation by the A.U.S. & E.U.S. This would mean a considerable saving to every student during his years at McGill.
5. The establishment of a Students Publication Service which would operate in co-ordination with the Faculty members to bring to the students, when advantageous, the circulation of mimeographed notes in the various courses and past examination papers.
6. I pledge myself not to be swayed by ANY pressure groups. Any controversial issues will be put before the Students' Society either at a meeting or through a referendum.
7. I wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who nominated me for their encouragement and support.

3. Earliest possible publication of plans for the new McGill Union.
4. The placing of popular magazines in the Reading Room.
5. Sincere effort to improve the quality of Union coffee without increasing the price.

If elected, I shall support all the above measures in the Union House Committee. I shall oppose all abridgements of the right to free speech and I shall make no irresponsible press statements.

In addition, at every opportunity I will press for the adoption of the following points by the Union House Committee:

- 1) Carry out the plans of the retiring executive to enlarge and modernize the Union — plans made possible by the additional revenue from the Women's Union.
- 2) At least two Open Meetings of the House Committee to enable the electorate to make suggestions and criticisms to the way the Union is being run.
- 3) Insure that transportation is provided to enable Dawson students to attend all events such as Smokers, Gen-Nites, and the like taking place in the Union.
- 4) Relieve congestion and provide adequate meeting space for all clubs through careful allocation of rooms and basement offices.
- 5) Improvement of service and quality of food served in the Grill Room and Cafeteria.

In conclusion, I pledge an impartial attitude to the administration of the Union and its rules regardless of the status of the individuals concerned.

The past executive of the McGill Union has done a noteworthy job of keeping the Union functioning smoothly.

My Policy Will Be: To carry out their task in an efficient manner; and to co-operate with Union House Committee and the S.E.C. to bring about major improvements which must be made to the Union and made immediately.

1. Expand and modernize the Union to serve the ever increasing number of students enrolling at McGill and entering McGill from Dawson.
2. Install a soda fountain and snack bar in the grill room, or in the forth coming extension to the grill room.
3. The building as a whole, with emphasis on the dining hall and grill room, must be kept cleaner to meet the standards of decency and to uphold the respect of the University.
4. The quality of the coffee must be improved and the price kept at a nickel.
5. Social functions must be better organized and publicized, so that they receive the full support of the student body, thus making for "bigger and better parties."

If elected, I will carry out the position as Vice-President of the Men's Union to the best of my ability, and shall at all times welcome suggestions and constructive criticisms.

Having been a member of the executive of the Women's Union this year, I realize the broad scope covered by our Union.

The Union has grown visibly in the past years, and many extra facilities have been added this year, such as the new ping-pong table and gramophone which we will have by the end of this week; the coke machine which will be installed by the end of the month, and a new meeting room. A series of interesting lectures on "Homemaking" has been instituted every Tuesday at one fifteen in the afternoon. I should like to continue this policy.

I would also adopt the policy of spending your money on visible improvements so that you yourselves may derive the benefits from it while you are at McGill rather than allowing capital to accumulate in the bank. I should also work to have buffet suppers to make Sunday residence life less drab and at the same time to bring non-resident students more in contact with the girls who live at RVC. I would encourage the good work of the existing women's clubs and do my best to help all concerned.

In closing I would like to thank those who placed their trust in me by nominating me for this position. (Signed) KAYO LITTLE.

Interest in the Women's Union, has gradually lessened within the past few years. The women students have been satisfied to see their Union — and hence their activities — carried on by only a small percentage of their number. The Women's Union instead of being a living organization, recognized and appreciated by all women students, has fallen into an obsolescence which only too often prompts the question "What does the Women's Union Do?"

I have accepted the responsibility of running for president because I am fully aware of the importance of the "Union", as well as the necessity for women students' co-operation in general campus activities. I feel, certain that the contribution of the Women's Union can be really worth-while if each woman is willing to take her share of responsibility as a member of McGill University.

An election platform traditionally consists of a long list of promises some carried out, some unavoidably broken. The issues which actually do require the initiative and careful attention of one who fills an executive position arise within the term of office. I feel that as I am unable to read the future, specific promises are futile. I do realize however, that there are certain problems which demand immediate attention. The women's common room has yet to be improved in appearance and utility; the women's washroom in the Arts Building is a disgrace to McGill. There is need for a common room for the women students in Science in the Biology Building. These things plus the continuation of Gen. Nites, buffet guest suppers, and Miss McGill, as well as an immediate start on the Freshman Reception Program would receive my continued support, as would the Book-Co-operative and the plans which N.F.C.U.S. is working on for inter-university exchange of students.

I realize the importance of the ex-officio position of the Women's Union representative on the Students' Council, and of the new status of women's students in the McGill Union, made possible by our capital grant and the percentage of fees which we are now paying to the Union funds. If elected I should endeavour to represent the women students in the Union and would see that part of the money goes towards improving conditions for women in the Union Building. To those who have nominated me, I should like to offer my sincere thanks.

Bob Henry Scores Winning Marker; Sinclair Nets Two

By AL HALPERIN

Two overtime goals by Bob Henry gave the Toronto Varsity Blues a 7-6 win over Dave Campbell's McGill Redmen. The contest was played last Friday night at the Varsity Arena in the Queen City, and the win gave the Blueshirts undisputed possession of second place in the league standings, the Friday night encounter being the last game of the season. The loss leaves the Campbellians in third spot, four points behind the runner-up Varsity sextet.

After piling up a 5-2 lead in the first two periods, the Redmen fell apart in the final stanza as the Blue and White sextet rapped home three tallies, the tying marker coming 45 seconds before the legal time ran out. Ace Bailey's boys took to the ice like a house on fire in the initial stanza, keeping the rubber disc in the McGill end of the rink almost all of the time. After making brilliant saves off Paul Kavanaugh and Harry Boyd of the Blueshirts, Tony Dobell, who was outstanding in the McGill cage, was finally beaten by Pete Ferguson as the Bailey-boy fired the puck past the McGill goalie from about 10 feet out. Frey and Boyd drew assists on the marker which came at 7:58 of the first period.

The Blues continued the torrid pace as the period wore on, and came close to netting another counter as Ferguson raced in on Dobell on a breakaway, but the starry Red netminder outgassed him as Ferguson piled up on the boards behind the net.

McGill Tallies
The first McGill counter came at 11:35 of the first stanza, as Reggie Sinclair, who kept the Varsity fans yelling with his brilliant hockey, deflected Goose Goselin's long blue line drive into the Toronto cage behind Hutzulac, to tie the count at one all.

Less than a minute later, the Redmen went ahead for the first time in the contest, as Boston Dave Hackett, who spent the majority of his Friday night in the pokey, raced in on Paul Hutzulac, on a pass from Hennessy, putting the disc neatly behind the Varsity netminder.

The Blues closed the first period scoring on a picture trolley as Fox and Digby executed a neat two way passing play up the ice, Fox finally putting the puck behind the bewildered Dobell. Rich Howson, who was the outstanding man on the ice for both squads, was also credited with an assist on the marker, setting up the play from behind the Varsity cage.

Varsity continued to press once again as the period drew to a close, outshooting the Campbellians 15-8 in the initial stanza.

Emerging for the middle canto, the Redmen once again showed that they had plenty on the ball, dominating the play for the entire period, and outshooting the Varsity marksmen 11-10. At 2:32, Goselin taking passes from Reggie Sinclair and Rocky Robillard, drove a shot past Paul Hutzulac from just inside the blue line.

Two minutes after Goose dented the twine, he passed the puck onto the stick of able Reggie Sinclair, who put it easily behind the Varsity netminder, to send the Redmen into a commanding 4-2 lead.

To add some extra action to the contest, Dave Hackett, rugged McGill blue-liner, after emerging from the penalty box after ruffing it with Hays of Varsity, went after his arch-rival, Will Digby. When referee Morris attempted to separate the two, Dave, who seemed to be having a difficult time controlling his temper, pushed his glove nearly in face of the astonished abiter, who while attempting to balance himself on one skate, presented Boston Dave with a ten minute misconduct penalty on top of his two minute banishment for ruffing it up with Digby.

McGill notched the final goal of the period as Robillard converted Sid May's pass to lengthen the lead to 5-2.

As the teams took to the ice for the third stanza, they showed a complete aboutface, as the Varsity gang once more took the edge in play, outshooting the Can Campbell 18-4. At 4:17 Digby fired a long shot past Dobell in the McGill cage, as he took passes from Turcott and Boyd. Ten minutes later, and with the Red squad still pretty confident of a win, Rich Howson topped a brilliant period's play by splitting McGill's lax defense and beating Dobell to put the Blues within one goal of the Redmen.

Members of the Inter-University Rifle team pose with the Dominion Marksmen Inter-University Challenge Trophy which they won from the University of Manitoba by a very close margin. This is the second time in the three years of the Trophy's history that McGill has won it. Other Universities represented in this meet were Toronto, McMaster and Sir George Williams. The members of the winning team received silver spoons for their efforts, while Bob Butler who made the highest score of the meet received a silver coaster. Front row: (left to right) Edson Warner, manager, Bob Butler, captain (holding the Trophy), Manfred Holt. Back Row: Lee White, Al Perry, Bruce Ramsay, and George Fulford.

McGill 6 vs Varsity 7

Scoring Summary
McGill: Goal, Dobell; defence, Heron, Goselin; centre, Sinclair; wings, Robillard, Hayward; alternates, Hennessy, May, Hackett, Atkinson, Parsons, Lafontaine.

U. of T.: Goal, Hutzulac; defence, Cavanagh, Ecclestone; centre, Turcott; wings, Henry, Spence; alternates: Digby, Frey, Boyd, Ferguson, Cooper, Howson, Fox, Hayes, Prince (sub goal).

Referees: Eddie Morris, Percy Allen, Toronto.

First Period
1—U. of T., Ferguson (Frey, Boyd) 7:58

2—McGill, Sinclair (Goselin) 11:35

3—McGill, Hackett (Hennessy) 12:40

4—U. of T., Fox (Howson, Digby) 16:14

Penalties: Digby, Parsons, Atkinson, Cooper, Goselin.

Second Period
5—McGill, Goselin (Robillard, Sinclair) 2:32

remaining in the contest, Ace Bailey decided to pull out goalie Paul Hutzulac and attempt to tie the count and send the contest into overtime. The strategy worked, as the six Varsity forwards jammed into the McGill zone took out their guards as Turcott flipped the face off to Bob Henry who slammed the tying marker behind Tony Dobell between the pipes.

In the ten minute overtime stanza, Varsity went ahead 6-5, on Henry's second goal of the evening, as he converted passes from Turcott and Spence. Less than two minutes later, McGill tied it up once more as Hayward slipped the puck behind Hutzulac on passes from Heron and Hennessy.

With a minute and sixty seconds remaining in the overtime canto, Bob Henry completed his hat trick as he drilled the winning tally past Tony Dobell in the McGill nets, to win the game for Varsity 7-6.

Riflery Club Wins Inter-University Marksmen Trophy

The Dominion Marksmen Inter-University Challenge Trophy was won by McGill for the second time in three years of competition. The McGill team outshot teams from Toronto, McMaster, Sir George Williams and last year's winner, the University of Manitoba.

Bob "Bench-rest" Butler, perennial captain of the McGill squad, made the highest individual score out of some 35 sharpshooting competitors. His 299 x 300 with 25's won him a Dominion Marksmen sterling silver coaster. Other members of the winning team received silver spoons.

McGill outstripped its most feared rival, U. of Man. by the close margin of two points to bring the trophy back to McGill. McGill scored 1485 out of a possible 1500. The results for those universities entered were:

McGill—1485
Manitoba—1483
Toronto—1471
McMaster—1434
Sir George Williams—1328

CLUB'S ACTIVITIES
In addition to the Inter-University, McGill Rifle Club shooters competed in several matches conducted by the Province of Quebec Rifle Association. Bob Butler has held the Quebec 22 Sporting Rifle Indoor Prone Championship for the past two years. Edson Warner took

McGill Men Face Top Track Stars Tonight in Legion Meet

By JIM ROBB

More than 350 top track men will take part in the Third Annual Canadian Legion Indoor Track and Field Meet at the Forum tonight. Athletes representing clubs from Toronto, Montreal, New York, Queens, Western, Middlebury, and McGill are included on the roster. Among the big names competing are Olympic stars Harrison Dillard, Willy Slykus and Art Jackes, along with Canadian champions Bob MacFarlane, Jack Parry, and Kim Kimbark.

As far as the Canadians are concerned the Meet has a double significance. It is the Dominion Indoor championships and it is being regarded as one of the major tests for the team which will represent Canada at the British Empire Games in New Zealand next year.

MCGILL MEN
Carrying McGill's colours in the Meet is the biggest team Coach Van Wagner has ever entered in the Legion affair. Fifteen men will be competing under the Red and White in the various events.

Main run for the Redmen will be the mile relay. Important because the Canadian indoor collegiate mile relay championship is coming up next weekend in Hamilton. In tonight's relay McGill will have Robinson, Munroe, Spence, and Swanzy the team which came second to the Canadian International High School relay team in last year's Legion Meet. Four top flight teams will provide the Reds competition on the Forum oval. Collegiate teams are coming from Middlebury, and from Queen's Gordon Haight one of the main cogs in the schoolboys victory last year will lead the Presbyterians. Another of the High schoolers George Lynch is this year running with a star Toronto relay team, the fourth team will come from the Montreal Track and Field Club.

McGill's men in the most important event of the meet, the fifty yard dash, has not yet been decided. Spence, Munroe and Robinson have all been entered. This race will see some of the stiffest competition in the meet. Harrison, Dillard, Olympic Champion will go against Jack Parry, Canadian Champ. Parry did not get a chance to meet Dillard in the Olympics due to a training injury. Canadian indoor champion Don Pettie who won the sprint last year, and Don Stonehouse, who recently tied a U.S. sixty yard record are also entered.

INTRODUCING MCGILL LIBRARY SCHOOL...

by Leonard R. Ashley

In the dark, unfathomed depths of the Redpath Library basement is the Library School, born to blush unseen, apparently, as far as most McGill students are concerned.

Except when the people from the Library School emerge from the door by the inkwell and wind slowly, if not silently, across the main reading room, they are out of sight and so, of proverbial necessity, out of mind.

The Features Editor had noticed this and felt it was about time to do something about it. "I have noticed this and felt it was about time to do something about it. Go and find out about the Library School."

"But," I objected, "where? What is the Library School? I never heard of it before!"

"That," exclaimed the Features

Editor triumphantly "is just the point!"

He was about to remark that he had noticed this and felt it was about time to do something about it when I left hurriedly.

Intrepidly our daring adventurer, carrying supplies for three days and several flares, entered the stacks of the Redpath Library, in search of the Library School.

I could not have walked more than a mile or two before I came upon an individual who was so withered and so wild in his attire that he looked not so much like an inhabitant of the earth but something that is on it. He was standing under a sign reading AGH—BLP.

Arming myself with a nearby volume (A Philosophical Inquiry into the Origin of Our Ideas of the Sublime and Beautiful, by Edmund Burke, handy for throwing), I addressed him.

"Do you belong to the Library School?" I asked.

"None at all," he said.

"Can you tell me how to get to the Library School?" I inquired.

He looked up. He was a small man and looked as dull as a sentence by Jeremy Bentham. Taking off his thick spectacles, he polished them with the dust jacket of Philip Dormer Stanhope, fourth Earl of Chesterfield, put them in his pocket, and replied.

"The purpose of the Library School," he said, "the oldest institution of its kind in Canada, is to provide college graduates with the basic training, both theoretical and practical, necessary for professional library work in a variety of fields. In addition to fundamental courses in library methods and administration, the School offers advantages and opportunities in training for special libraries, college libraries, children's libraries."

"But..." I remarked.

"And it is situated in a large city which provides examples of all types of libraries and is part of a university with a recognized standard of scholarship."

"Yes," I said. "Now if you would just tell me..."

"Just tell you of the courses?"

Certainly. Well, after obtaining a Bachelor's degree, the student enters the Library School (founded in nineteen hundred four, I think) and takes basic courses in Cataloguing, Reference, and Book Selection, and... oh yes Library Administration, the History of the Book... ah, Etcetera. In short, he (or she) learns about the Acquisition and Care of Library Materials, the Selection and Use of Same, and Library Practice."

"Thank you," I said. "Now if you would please merely tell me where..."

"Where? Why the School occupies quarters conveniently situated in the Redpath Library..."

"So my guess was right..."

"And consists of a lecture room (equipped with lantern and refractoscope), staff offices, a very comfy reading room..."

"I knew there was one in the Redpath Library somewhere!" I said.

"Containing," he went on, "professional books and periodicals, and study rooms with individual desks and typewriters, one for each student."

"How many students are there?" I asked.

"Forty, nineteen of them men."

"That's a nice arrangement," I said.

"I'm glad you brought up that subject. Speaking of arrangements I should say that since 1945 the enrollment has increased markedly and it has been difficult to arrange for such a large number of students. However, there is a great need for librarians in public or special libraries, in universities and business, government archives, children's libraries..."

"You say they have lectures..." I asked.

"Leading to the degree of Bachelor of Library Science, and..."

"Yes. NOW... COULD YOU TELL ME WHERE..."

"In the Library School, of course. Then they have the full use of the library, the book stacks, and they visit local libraries of all sorts and once a year they are taken on a one-week conducted tour of general public and special libraries in universities and business, children's libraries—all sorts of libraries in and around New York."

"They go to New York?" I asked.

"Absolutely, they..."

"Speaking of going," I said.

"... And coming," he said.

"Special lectures in all sorts of subjects related to the School's work are given by local specialists and visiting lecturers who come from all over Canada and the United States."

I took a deep breath. "Can you tell me NOT where the visiting lecturers come from but where..."

"Where the students come from? Certainly, I'm glad you asked. The forty of them come to the Library School from every province in Canada. Some come from the United States. Seven come from Saskatchewan and five of those come from... Saskatoon."

"Geshundheit!" I remarked.

"Saskatoon, Saskatchewan! I remember arriving there one Friday night. The rain was coming down in buckets. It was the Spring of '04... or was it '05? No..."

I realized action was necessary. I pushed the little man into a corner labelled AGP, barricaded him with a 90 volume set of the Proceedings of the Society for the Determination of the Logical in Emotional Experience in the Hebrides, and escaped.

Later, quite by accident, I found the Library School—in the Basement of the Library, just right of and below the porch where you aren't permitted to smoke.

I met Miss Virginia Murray of the Staff who told me about the School, and Cataloguing and Classifying Books—her specialty. She was very helpful—but I couldn't keep from wondering whether the little man should be catalogued as a Library School prospectus or as volume 91 of the proceedings of the S.D.L.E.E.H.

Miss Grace Reynolds, the Secretary of the School and a sessional lecturer in library work with children, told me about some of the courses, visiting lecturers, and the New York trip, which she conducts.

I met Elmer Smith, the President of this year's class and I interviewed him and some of the other students. The result is to be found elsewhere on this page.

Not stopping to see Mr. Richard Pennington, the Director of the School (because he has been recently interviewed in the Daily) I headed straight for the Union.

Refreshed by a bracing cup of steaming Union coffee, I thought over my experience. Some day I'm going to go back. That Library School certainly is one of the University's busiest and most interesting hives of activity, even if its work is not so well-known on the campus.

And I would like to find out exactly what the Society for the Determination of the Logical in Emotional Experience in the Hebrides has to say in those 90 voluminous books—her specialty. She

WHAT THEY DO
ELMER SMITH—President of this year's class. Has completed Pre-Medical Studies and is preparing for work in a medical library.
MURIEL HOLMES answered our question about the opportunities offered by provincial governments. She said key positions command good salaries but they are few. The average librarian in this type of work is paid a very small salary.
ANDREW WALSH plans to go into reference work in a public or business library. There is a great demand for well-trained librarians in the libraries of large business organizations who make technical reference books and periodicals available to their staffs.
JEAN GALLAHUE feels the opportunities are better in the States and the library training she receives at McGill is recognized by the American Library Association as on a par with the best offered in the U.S. She thinks Ontario has the best library system in Canada.
JOHN ARCHER, who holds one of the three scholarships in library work granted each year by the Saskatchewan government, thinks that province has the best system. He has his M.A. in history and will work in the Saskatchewan provincial archives after graduation.
GEORGE NOBLE will go back to Saskatchewan to work in the regional libraries recently established there. Operating from some central city, they bring education and entertainment to the surrounding rural districts with travelling libraries.
FRED COLE will work in one of the departmental libraries in the Dominion government at Ottawa. The salaries are not as high as some other places but positions (in the Bureau of Statistics, for example) are available there which cannot be found elsewhere. Fred thinks that everywhere library work is coming into its own as a profession and salaries are beginning to approach "a reasonable figure."

their powers were and thus could not be expected to offer real leadership to other Bandmen. I understand, however, that some committee is presently working on a Constitution for the Band; this would be a great help.
If a student, not familiar with the workings of the Band, were to take a peek into the equipment room in the Gymnasium, he would, I have no doubt, be amazed to discover that there are less than 20 instruments on hand at the present time. How, then, is it possible to have a McGill Band approaching any reasonable size?
In closing, let me say that if you must criticize the way the Band plays, don't blame the players; surely most of the blame lies with the student body which is responsible for administering the Band's affairs.
Sincerely,
Hopeful
